THE NEW YORK SYMPHONY CLUB
AT JOBE'S OPERA HOUSE,
Tuesday Eve, Dec. 1

Of this Great Company the press speaks in the following high terms:

A large crowd greeted the second appearance of the New York Symphony Club under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. They are popular favorites here. Charles F. Higgins, the celebrated violin virtuoso, made a remarkable hit. Each artist won great praise and were recalled often. The programme was carefully selected, and the evening decidedly successful, both in a strictly musical sense and as a popular entertainment.—From the Inter-Ocean.

The music loving people of Buffalo, who heard the concerts by the New York Symphony Club, went away thoroughly delighted. The program was a rich and varied one, and while it appealed in some measure to popular taste, there was not a number given that would not fall gratefully on the ear of the most cultivated musician. It was from first to last a musical entertainment of the highest order.—From Buffalo Daily Courier Nov. 1, '91.

Always With Us.
A thing of the past—the old depot.
A thing of the present—the old depot.
A thing of the future—the old depot.
It is hoped that when we verge onto eternity, it will take the other road.

Seats for Rose Osborne are going fast.

A Correction.

There was a mistake in the report of the Citizens Bank as it was sent us. Capt. D. S. McIntire, instead of being elected as a director was elected to the presidency in place of F. A. Stratton, resigned.

Hymeneal.

A pleasant wedding took place yesterday at Radford, Virginia. Frank McNees, of the firm of Hart & McNees, of this city, was married to Miss Etta Curtis, of Radford.

The happy couple are expected to arrive here today, and extensive preparations have been made to give them a royal reception. THE COMET extends its usual congratulations and wishes them a long and happy life in the genial sunshine of fondest affection. By way of parenthesis we wish to remark that the wedding is a profound secret.

Took Him Back.

Officers Remine and Ray captured Will Johnson, a negro who was wanted at Abingdon, Va., for burglary and for which a reward of $10 was offered. They telegraphed to Abingdon, and yesterday Chief of Police David J. Webb and J. P. Davis came down and took the prisoner in charge; returning to Abingdon on the afternoon train. Johnson had broke into the store of Withers & Davis, hardware dealers at Abingdon.
